What's In Your Writer's Wardrobe? Explorations in Poetry, Non-Fiction & Fiction

St. Catharines Central Library, 54 Church Street,
Rotary/Bankers Room Public Library

Free workshop from 10:00 am - 1:00 pm

(with an option for private consultation with Ruth & Gwynn after 1:30*)

Email: gctoasties@gmail.com to register in advance. Seating is limited.

Ruth E. Walker & Gwynn Scheltema will explore various forms of writing in a 3-hour workshop designed for stretching, experimentation and play. Perfection is not the goal. Rather, this is an ideal setting to "try on" new approaches and forms.

New writers will add to their toolkit of skills; experienced writers are invited to challenge themselves. Using a tag-team teaching approach, participants will benefit from having two facilitators in the room.

* Gwynn and Ruth will also be available after the workshop for private one-on-one consultation and/or feedback on up to 10 manuscript pages. There are only 6 spots open at $30 per participant. Each consultation/feedback session is for 30 minutes and must be booked in advance at www.writescape.ca. The two powerhouse presenters are also skilled editors and writing coaches.
